Classroom to Courtroom

“Everyone is a genius. But if you judge a fish on its ability to climb a tree, it will live its whole life believing it is stupid.” ~ Albert Einstein

This famous quote summarises the dilemma in many of us. At this crucial juncture, where you need to make a choice regarding the career you would like to pursue, you may be full of doubts regarding which stream you should choose, the best colleges to vie for, entrance exams, areas of preparation, the kind of jobs it will provide and of course, you have a responsibility to yourself to make the right choice. Today, a career in law is one of the best options after the 12th Standard, considering the many opportunities that it offers. The emergence of the National Law Schools, their world-class education and their national and international campus placements each year, bear testimony to this fact.

A graduation in law offers much more than just practising as an advocate in a court of law or going beyond courtrooms. Law school graduates now have many exciting career opportunities offered by Indian and International Law Firms, Consulting and Advisory Companies, MNCs, Corporate Legal Departments, Legal Process Outsourcing (LPOs), etc. In the public sector, options such as the Civil Services, the Legal Departments, are indeed attractive and rewarding. The more academically oriented National Law School graduates have joined the world's best universities like Harvard, Cambridge, Oxford and Yale for higher education.

What does Law as a career option after 10+2 mean?

Law is a 5-Year Integrated Programme offering twin degrees such as BA LLB, BBA LLB, BSc. LLB, B.Com. LLB with specialization in Civil Law, Tax Law, Patent Law, Criminal Law, International Law, Labour Law, Cyber Law & Intellectual Property Law, etc.

How they pay:
Organizations	Salary Band* (₹ per annum)
Law Firms	Upto 14 Lakhs
MNCs	Upto 12 Lakhs
Litigation Firms	Upto 8 Lakhs
NGOs	Upto 6 Lakhs

*The figures are indicative only and based on broad trends.
It may vary from institute to institute and year to year.
